

Saturday, July 18th, 2009 at 8pm at Theater on San Pedro Square

29 North San Pedro St.

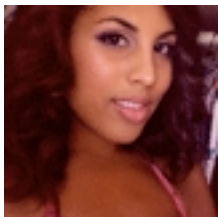

San Jose, CA.

Tickets $10 at the door or get advance tickets at

<http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/71358>

www.tabardtheatre.org

SAN JOSE native Jessica Johnson has been turning heads and ears with her smooth and soulful brand of jazz infused R&B, earning more praise and awards than most musicians twice her age receive in a lifetime. At 20 years old, what Johnson may lack in professional experience is made up for with a voice as strong and bright as a young Aretha Franklin. Her recently released debut CD, Till It Happens, is a dynamic collection of R&B treasures that span from Stevie Wonder's "You and I" to classics like "Summertime" and "Cry Me a River." With a promising start towards a brilliant career, San Jose's own Jessica Johnson might be one of the next divas of soul. Garrett Wheeler/Metro Newspaper